

PROGRAM REPORT APRIL -2023

06.04.2023: Liver Transplant Society of India Master Class at M S Ramaiah Hospital: Ms. Lijamol Joseph, the Chief Transplant Coordinator Jeevasarthakathe/ SOTTO Karnataka, has been invited as the faculty for the Master class organized by LTSI at M S Ramaiah Hospital. The event aims to provide valuable insights and expertise on transplantation and to train on multi-organ retrieval.

Sonal Asthana, MD @sonalast... · 06 Apr
Ms Lijamol Joseph , chief transplant coordinator Jeevasarthakathr talking about the role of transplant coordinators at the Transplant masterclass , Bangalore
#livertransplant #masterclass @ _LTSI_

06.04.2023: Organ Donation Awareness Event at the Wenlock Hospital: An awareness program on organ donation was organized by Jeevasarthakathe/SOTTO Karnataka Mangalore zone for the Yenepoya Ayurvedic medical students. The program took place at the RAPCC hall in Wenlock Hospital. Ms. Padma, a transplant coordinator from Jeevasarthakathe, conducted the session and provided valuable information about organ donation, emphasizing its significance and explaining the pledging system. A total of 15 students actively participated in this program.

17.04.2023: Organ Donation Awareness Event at District Maternity Hospital Dharwad: An awareness program took place at District Maternity Hospital in Dharwad, where Mr. Manoj Nayak, the transplant coordinator from Jeevasarthakathe/SOTTO Karnataka Hubballi zone, attended as a representative. During the program, Mr. Nayak discussed the importance of organ donation and also distributed informative IEC (Information, Education, and Communication) material. A total of 20 individuals actively participated in the program, contributing to the dissemination of knowledge about organ donation

18.04.2023: Organ Donation Awareness Event at Wenlock Hospital Library: Jeevasarthakathe/SOTTO Karnataka Mangalore zone successfully organized an awareness program for Yenepoya Medical Students at Wenlock Library. Ms. Padma, a transplant coordinator from Jeevasarthakathe, delivered an informative session on organ donation, emphasizing its significance and explaining the pledging system. Additionally, Dr. Naushad Banu, the A.R.C of the Ayushman department, shared valuable insights about the benefits provided by Ayushman for transplant patients. The program received active participation from 30 students, further promoting awareness and understanding of organ donation and transplant-related support.

19.04.2023: Organ Donation Awareness Event at Chitaguppi Hospital Hubballi: An awareness program took place at Chitaguppi Hospital in Hubballi, where Mr. Manoj Nayak, the transplant coordinator from Jeevasarthakathe/SOTTO Karnataka Hubballi zone, actively participated. During the program, Mr. Nayak conducted a discussion on organ donation, highlighting its importance, and distributed Information, Education, and Communication (IEC) materials. The program was attended by a group of 25 individuals, contributing to the dissemination of knowledge and awareness about organ donation.

26.04.2023: Organ Donation Awareness Program at Senior Citizen Club at Cantonment Rotary Club Bangalore: The Senior Citizen Club organized an Organ Donation Awareness program in collaboration with the Rotary Club Bangalore. The guest lecture on organ donation and transplantation was delivered by Ms. Lijamol Joseph, the Chief Transplant Coordinator from Jeevasarthakathe/SOTTO Karnataka. The informative session was followed by a collective oath taken by all Rotary members, committing themselves to become organ donor ambassadors.

26.04.2023: Organ Donation Awareness Event at District Health Training Center: An awareness program on organ donation was conducted at the Health Training Center in Dharwad. Mr. Manoj Nayak, the transplant coordinator from Jeevasarthakathe/SOTTO Karnataka Hubballi zone, participated in the program as a guest speaker. He enlightened the attendees about the significance of organ donation and distributed informative IEC materials. The program witnessed the active participation of 25 individuals, further promoting awareness and understanding of organ donation.

